A Limited Edition of the Large Chief Mask (1934-1935) has been selected as this year's Commemorative 2008. This piece was made for a very short time during the Norman era. It symbolizes Oklahoma's rich Native American heritage, so often interpreted in early art pieces created by John Frank.

Master mold maker Lacy Green has agreed to produce the mold for this piece and longtime Frankoma Manager Kandy Steeples will oversee production and glazing. We think you will be pleased with the collaboration of these two Frankoma experts.

The Limited Edition of the Large Chief Mask (1934-1935) will be offered in one glaze only: New Prairie Green and will sell for $27.50 each. Don't miss this chance to order now!
